Temp News

Good personal values are what make the foundation for a good employee. A temporary assignment is an excellent opportunity to show employers that you have the personal traits they value in their employees. Do not miss out on this chance to show your supervisors at your job assignment that you have what it takes to be successful on the job, as well as possessing the personal characteristics they value.

A temporary job through C&S can be an opportunity to learn the skills and behaviors along with the work values that are required to be successful in the workplace. How many of these values do you possess?

Strong Work Ethic -- Employers value employees who understand and possess a willingness to work hard. In addition to working hard, it is also important to work smart. This means learning the most efficient way to complete tasks and finding ways to save time while completing daily assignments. It's also important to care about your job and complete all projects while maintaining a positive attitude.

Dependability & Responsibility -- Employers value employees who come to work on time, are there when they are supposed to be and are responsible for their actions and behavior. It is important to keep supervisors as well as C&S informed if you are going to be late or absent for any reason.

Adaptability -- Employers seek employees who are adaptable and maintain flexibility in completing tasks in an ever-changing workplace.

Being open to change and improvements is a must for all employees. Adaptability also means adapting to the personality and work habits of co-workers and supervisors. By viewing change as an opportunity to complete work assignments in a more efficient manner, adapting to change can be a positive experience.

Possessing a Positive Attitude -- Employers seek employees who take the initiative and have the motivation to get the job done in a reasonable period of time. A positive attitude gets the work done and motivates others to do the same without dwelling on the challenges that inevitably come up in any job.

Honesty & Integrity -- Employers value employees who maintain a sense of honesty and integrity above all else.

Good relationships are built on trust. When working for an employer, they want to know that they can trust what you say and what you do.

Now is the time to apply for SUMMER EMPLOYMENT with C&S!

Do you know someone who is seeking summer employment? While it may not even be Spring yet, the time is right to apply for summer employment with C&S.

C&S accepts applications for summer employment prior to the summer months to establish an adequate pool of applicants to place with employers who seek summer employees.

And, while it is difficult to predict the number and variety of positions available this summer through C&S, the important thing to remember is that applicants must be up-to-date in our database to be considered for summer employment.

Please encourage anyone interested in a summer job to apply at C&S now!

Thought for the Month...

when preparation meets opportunity.*
